Art Exchange's associate artist Chris Dobrowolski embarked on an epic road trip from Colchester to Rome in his ancient but lovingly repaired childhood car, a Triumph Herald Estate.

Part investigation into his father's time during WWII as a Polish soldier in the Italian Campaign and part muse on consumerism, All Roads Lead to Rome brings together car mechanics, Roman Roads, the Cold War, consumerism, contemporary art theory and classical civilization.

"A simple, effective and intellectual piece, told with warmth and a twinkle." Fringe Review.****

"An hour of charismatic storytelling"
